

FALL HANDBELL WORKSHOP

featuring composer/conductor

Michael Mazzatenta

Saturday, September 22, 2018 | 9:00 to Noon

An award winning handbell composer with over sixty pieces currently published, Michael Mazzatenta is a familiar name in the handbell world. A talented instructor, musician, and performer, Michael has designed this workshop to enhance your handbell music for the entire church year. Come and learn about his theory and practice of handbell ringing and apply these techniques in four different compositions during the workshop.

Michael's diverse musical background includes college teaching, performance, and directing. He is currently an Adjunct Music Instructor at Texas A&M University in Corpus Christi TX. More info at: mikemazzatenta.com

Registration on Reverse

Repertoire

Participating choirs will need to purchase adequate copies of the repertoire for your ensemble. Music does not need to be performance ready but it will be helpful to have rehearsed in advance.

All publications available at www.handbellworld.com or from your preferred music supplier.
